ARTICLE I – PREAMBLE AND NAME

We, the adult members of the Assiniboiné and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, Montana, in order to establish a recognized and approved tribal organization to handle our Reservation affairs and business, to protect the sovereignty and the vested interest of our Tribes and members under treaties, agreements, and laws, formerly enacted, to procure for our Tribes and our members and our posterity, social, educational and industrial assistance, also, to procure assistance in all matters of interest to the Tribes, and to preserve peaceful and cooperative relations with the United States Government, its subdivisions, and its offices, do hereby establish this Constitution and Bylaws, with the legal name: “Assiniboiné and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, Montana.” (Where used herein, the “Reservation” refers to the Fort Peck Indian Reservation in Montana; the “Tribes” to the Assiniboiné and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, the “Board” to the Tribal Executive Board, the “Secretary” to the Tribal Executive Board Secretary, the “General Council” refers to an assembly of the qualified Electors of the Tribes.)

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, codified as enacted.

ARTICLE II – TERRITORY

The jurisdiction of the Tribes shall extend to the territory within the original confines of the Fort Peck Reservation as defined in the agreement of December 28 and December 31, 1886, confirmed by the Act of May 1, 1888 (25 Stat. 113, Ch. 212) and to such other lands as may be hereafter added thereto under any laws of the United States, except as otherwise provided by law.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, codified as enacted.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the Tribes of the Reservation shall consist of those persons who qualify in accordance with an ordinance approved by the Tribes, in a referendum vote. A membership ordinance shall be submitted to the Tribes simultaneously with the submission of this Constitution for referendum vote by the Tribes.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, codified as enacted.

ARTICLE IV – GOVERNING BODY

Section 1. The governing body of the Tribes shall be known as the Tribal Executive Board, subject to the powers of the General Council.

A General Council may initiate ordinances or reject within ninety (90) days any enactment of the Executive Board. Upon petition of at least 10 percent (10%) of the eligible voters of the Tribes, a General Council shall be called by the Chairman at a place within the Fort Peck Reservation designated in the petition; a quorum shall consist of one hundred (100) eligible voters of the Tribes. A stenographic transcript shall be kept of all proceedings of the General Council.

Section 2. The Board shall consist of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary-Accountant, a Sergeant-at-Arms, and twelve (12) Board members.

Section 3. The Chairman, the Vice-Chairman, Sergeant-at-Arms and twelve (12) additional members of the Board shall be elected at large. The Secretary-Accountant shall be appointed from within or without the Board membership.

Section 4. The Chairman, the Vice-Chairman, the Sergeant-at-Arms, and Board members shall be elected for a two (2) year term.

Section 5. The Secretary-Accountant shall be appointed for a two (2) year term, and if appointed from outside of the elected Board membership, the Secretary-Accountant so appointed shall have no vote in Executive Board proceedings.

Section 6. The Board shall adopt a Code of Ethics governing behavioral standards for the Board, which shall apply to all voting and non-voting members of the Board.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960; § 3 amended by Amdt. 1 (Oct. 6, 1971); § 1 amended by Amdt. 2 (May 5, 1972); § 6 enacted by Amdt. 8, (Oct. 26, 2013).

ARTICLE V – NOMINATIONS, ELECTIONS AND VACANCIES

Section 1. Elections shall be by secret ballot. Voting shall be within the respective districts as provided herein, at a place designated within each district by the Board.

Section 2. All members of the Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes, as determined by Article III of this Constitution, who are eighteen (18) years of age or over, are eligible to vote as provided:

(a) Voters residing on the Reservation shall be eligible to vote in the district in which they have last resided for a full sixty (60) days immediately preceding the election. The registration of any member for voting at a State or County election shall be conclusive as establishing his/her place of residence.

(b) Non-resident voters may vote by absentee ballot in the last district of their former affiliation, provided they have registered their intent to vote at that district at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of election.

Section 3. The first election of the Board under this Constitution and Bylaws shall be held within one hundred twenty (120) days following its ratification and approval by the Secretary of the Interior under such rules, regulations, and ordinances, as promulgated by the Tribal Executive Board. Subsequent elections shall be held on the last Saturday in October every two (2) years. In the event such day is a holiday, the election shall be held on the first subsequent day that is not a holiday.

Section 4. Elected Board members shall take office at the first regular meeting following the election. Before entering on duty the newly elected Board members shall file the oath of office certified by a notary public, the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I shall faithfully execute the duties of my office, defend the Constitution of the United States of America, the State of Montana, and the Assiniboiné and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, so help me God."

Section 5. To be eligible for nomination and election to the Board, a person must be:

- (a) An eligible voter on the Reservation.
- (b) A qualified candidate having resided on the Reservation at least sixty (60) days immediately preceding an election, and not having been convicted of a felony for which he/she has not received a pardon.
- (c) All questions of residence as referred to in this Constitution shall be resolved by the Tribal Executive Board.

Section 6. The candidates for Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Sergeant-at-Arms and twelve (12) additional members of the Executive Board receiving the highest number of cumulative legal votes from all the districts shall be declared elected.

Section 7. The Tribal Executive Board shall have the authority to pass ordinances providing for method of elections, and not limiting said power to, but including election announcements, nominations, and fees, registration of voters lists, election officials and their duties, place of voting, certificates of election, manner of protests and recount, and all election procedures; as a guide, to follow as near practicable Chapter 23 of the Revised Code of Montana, 1947, as amended, and effective at the time; and in case of disputed interpretation, the decisional laws of Montana shall be resorted to, subject to the approval of the Fort Peck Tribal Board.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960; § 6 amended by Amdt. 1 (Oct. 6, 1971); § 2 amended by Amdt. 3 (Jul. 29, 1974, Amdt. 4 (Feb. 13, 1978)).

ARTICLE VI - VACANCIES AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Section 1. The Tribal Executive Board shall declare a position on the Board vacant whenever a member shall die, resign, be removed or recalled from office. Such vacancies shall be filled as follows:

- (a) If the office of Chairman shall become vacant, the Vice-Chairman shall become Chairman, and the office of Vice-Chairman shall then be filled as provided in Subsection (b) of this Section.
- (b) If the office of Vice-Chairman shall become vacant, it shall be automatically filled by the person who received the next highest number of cumulative legal votes from all districts for the office of Vice-Chairman at the previous election who meets the qualifications for that office on the date he or she takes office, and who is willing to serve as Vice-Chairman.
- (c) If the office of Secretary/Accountant shall become vacant, a successor shall be appointed for the remainder of his or her term as provided in Article IV, Section 3 and 5.

- (d) If the office of Sergeant-at-Arms shall become vacant, it shall be automatically filled by the person who received the next highest number of cumulative legal votes from all districts for the office of Sergeant-at-Arms at the previous election, who meets the qualifications for that office on the date he or she takes office; and who is willing to serve as a member of the Board.
- (e) If any other seat on the Tribal Executive Board shall become vacant, it shall be automatically filled by the person who received the highest number of cumulative votes from all districts in the previous election, who meets the qualifications for office on the date he or she takes office, who is not a member of the Board on the date he or she takes office; and who is willing to serve as a member of the Board.
- (f) If a vacancy shall remain in any office for a reason, the Board may schedule a special election to fill the vacancy.

Section 2. A Board member or officer of the Board, may be removed from office by the Board, after having been given twenty (20) days notice in writing by the Secretary, and a chance to be heard. Causes for prejudicial Executive procedures removal are:

- (a) Permanent change of residence from the Reservation.
- (b) Conviction in any court of a felony while in office, and/or any course of conduct prejudicial to the Tribes.
- (c) Failure to attend three (3) regular meeting in succession, except that the Tribal Board may approve reasonable grounds for nonattendance.
- (d) The Tribal Executive Board shall by duly enacted ordinances establish such and regulations necessary to carry out the intent of this article.
- (e) All questions which cannot be resolved by the Tribal Executive Board shall be referred to the Fort Peck General Council.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, amended by Amdt. 7, as per Oct. 26, 1991 Referendum, Tribal Resolution 2373-91-7 (Jul. 10, 1991).

ARTICLE VII – GOVERNMENTAL POWERS

The Tribal Executive Board shall exercise the following powers subject to any limitations imposed by the Constitution or Statutes of the United States and Fort Peck General Council, and subject further to all expressed restrictions upon such powers contained in this Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 1. To negotiate with Federal, State and local governments, and others on behalf of the Tribes, and consult with representatives of the Department of the Interior on all activities which may affect the Tribes.

Section 2. To employ legal counsel for the protection of the rights of the Tribes.

Section 3. To make and enforce ordinances covering the Tribes' right to levy taxes and license fees on person or organizations doing business on the Reservation, except that ordinances or regulations affecting the non-members trading or residing within the jurisdiction of the Tribes shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

Section 4. To promote public health, education, security, charity, and such other services as may contribute to the social advancement of the members of the Tribes.

Section 5. To provide, subject to the review of the Secretary of the Interior, or his authorized representatives, for the maintenance of law and order and the administration of justice by establishing tribal courts and police force, and defining the powers and duties of same, and to promulgate criminal the name of and to the credit of the Assiniboiné and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, with such depositories as the Board may direct.

- (c) Disburse the funds of the Tribes as may be ordered by the Tribal Executive Board, taking proper signed invoices, vouchers, or other instruments for said disbursements.
- (d) Render to the Tribal Executive Board monthly report and account of all his transactions as Accountant, and an annual financial statement in forms and detail showing the conditions of tribal expenditures, receipts and disbursements.
- (e) The Tribal Accountant and all officers and employees whose duties involve the handling of tribal money or resources, shall be bonded under the terms and conditions established by the Tribal Executive Board and approved by the Superintendent of the Fort Peck Reservation.

Duties of Sergeant-at-Arms:

- (a) He shall act as Sergeant-at-Arms at all regular and special meetings and shall enforce all rules and see that peace and order are kept during the sessions of the Board.
- (b) He shall perform all other duties as assigned by the Tribal Executive Board.
- (c) He shall not be a voting member of the Board.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, codified as enacted.

ARTICLE XII – ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER

Roberts Rules of Order as revised shall govern all meetings of the General Council and the Tribal Executive Board except as otherwise provided in this Constitution and Bylaws.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, codified as enacted.

ARTICLE XIII – MANNER OF REVIEW

Section 1. Any resolution or ordinance which by the terms of this Constitution is subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior shall within ten (10) days of its enactment be presented to the Superintendent of the Fort Peck Agency who shall within ten (10) days after its receipt by him approve or disapprove it.

Section 2. If the Superintendent approves any resolution or ordinance it shall thereupon become effective, but the Superintendent shall transmit the enactment bearing his endorsement to the Secretary of the Interior, who may within ninety (90) days of the date of its enactment rescind the resolution or ordinance for any cause by notifying the Fort Peck Tribal Executive Board of his veto.

Section 3. If the Superintendent disapproves any resolution or ordinance, he shall within ten (10) days after its receipt by him advise the Tribal Executive Board in writing of his reasons therefore, and if these reasons appear to the Board insufficient, it may, by vote of the majority of all members, refer the resolution or ordinance to the Secretary of the Interior and if approved by him in writing it shall be effective.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, codified as enacted.

ARTICLE XIV – REFERENDUM

Upon a petition of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the eligible votes of the Tribes, or upon request of a majority of the Tribal Executive Board members, any enacted or proposed enactment of the Tribal

Executive Board shall be submitted to a popular referendum and the vote of a majority of the qualified voters at that election shall be conclusive.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, codified as enacted.

ARTICLE XV – AMENDMENT

This Constitution and Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the Tribes voting at an election called for that purpose by the Tribal Executive Board or General Council or under the provisions of Article XIV of this Constitution.

History: En. Oct. 1, 1960, amended by Amdt. 6 (Aug. 13, 1988).

ARTICLE XVI - ADOPTION

This revised Constitution and Bylaws when adopted by a majority vote of the Assiniboiné and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, Montana, voting at a special election called by the Tribal Executive Board, shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior, and shall be in full force and effect from the date of such approval by the Secretary of the Interior.

History: Adopted by a majority affirmative vote at Special Election held on May 7, 1988, and approved on Sept. 13, 1988 by Deputy Assistant to the Secretary, Hazel E. Elbert.

Amdt. 7. Article VI, Vacancies and Removal from Office, Section 1, shall be amended to read:

“Section 1. The Tribal Executive Board shall declare a position on the Board vacant whenever a member shall die, be removed or recalled from office. Such vacancies shall be filled as follows:

- (a) If the Office of the Chairman shall become vacant, the Vice-Chairman shall become Chairman, the office of Vice-Chairman shall then be filled as provided in subsection (b) of this section.
- (b) If the office of Vice-Chairman shall become vacant, it shall be automatically filled by the person who received the next highest number of cumulative legal votes from all districts for the office of Vice-Chairman at the previous election who meets the qualifications for that office on the date he or she takes office; and who is willing to serve as Vice-Chairman.
- (c) if the office of Secretary/Accountant shall become vacant, a successor shall be appointed for the remainder of his or her terms as provided in Article IV, Sections 3 and 5.
- (d) If the office of Sergeant-at-Arms shall become vacant, it shall be automatically filled by the person who received the next highest number of cumulative legal votes from all districts for the office of Sergeant-at-Arms at the previous election who meets the qualifications for that office on the date he or she takes office; and who is willing to serve as Sergeant-at-Arms.
- (e) If any other seat on the Tribal Executive Board shall become vacant it shall be automatically filled by the person who received the next highest number of cumulative legal votes from all districts in the previous election, who meets the qualification for office on the date he or she takes office, who is not a member of the Board on the date he or she takes office; and who is willing to serve as a member of the Board.
- (f) If a vacancy shall remain in any office for a reason, the Board may schedule a special election to fill the vacancy.”

History: Adopted by a majority affirmative referendum vote at General Election held on Oct. 26, 1991, and by previous Tribal Executive Board Resolution No. 2372-91-7 (Jul. 10, 1991).

Amdt. 8. This amendment established Art. IV, § 6, which includes the following language: “The Board shall adopt a Code of Ethics governing behavioral standards for the Board, which apply to all voting and non-voting members of the Board.”

History: Adopted by a majority affirmative vote at General Election held on Oct. 26, 2013.

Amdt. 9. This amendment removed the language: “the members of the Tribes and non-member Indians residing” from Art. 7, § 5 (Governmental Powers), which had previously limited the criminal jurisdiction of the Tribes to offenses committed by Indian persons only and replaced it with less restrictive language: (“persons”) which allows the Tribes to exercise criminal jurisdiction over non-Indians, as permitted by federal law.

History: Adopted by a majority affirmative vote at General Election held on Oct. 26, 2013.

Amdt. 10. This amendment established Art. VII, §§ 5(d) and 5(e) (Governmental Powers), clarifying that the Executive Board may exercise its powers to protect and preserve the cultural and spiritual sites, medicinal plants and natural foods within the Reservation:

- (d) To protect and preserve cultural and traditional/spiritual sites and landmarks within the boundaries of the Reservation.
- (e) To protect and preserve the Tribes’ culture, including traditional medicinal plants and natural foods.

History: Adopted by a majority affirmative vote at General Election held on Oct. 26, 2013.

Amdt. 11. This amendment added the following language to Section 9 of Article VII (Governmental Powers), requiring claims councils, district councils and other organizations to submit an annual audited fiscal report: “The Tribal Board will require all such recognized organizations to submit an annual audited fiscal report to the Board for review and public release.”

History: Adopted by a majority affirmative vote at General Election held on Oct. 26, 2013.
